NOW PAY LIBRARY FINES AND FEES ONLINE! New Self-Service Option Allows Patrons to Manager Their Account from Anywhere

San Diego, CA. The San Diego Public Library is pleased to offer online payment of library fines and fees. With their library card and PIN (personal identification number), patrons can now view their library bills in just a few quick clicks from home or from the Library's Internet stations. Bill payment is a snap using the secure credit card payment system. Payments can be made with MasterCard and Visa credit cards and debit cards displaying the MasterCard or Visa symbol.

“We are thrilled that we are able to offer this new self-service option for library users,” said Library Director Deborah Barrow. “It streamlines the bill paying process and allows users to manage their library accounts 24/7. Two of the first library users to pay their bills online did so after 1:00 a.m., which just proves how people are up in the wee hours using the library’s website!”

To view or pay their library bills online, from the library’s website www.sandiegolibrary.org , patrons can click on the view or pay library bills link under the “I want to...” section. From that page patrons can access the secure credit card payment system. There are also FAQs (frequently asked questions) for online assistance.
